

- D You are reading information about the charity organization Clear The Air on the Internet. The computer is not showing some of the words properly. Complete the information by underlining the correct time words.

Clear The Air

(1) (Since/for) 1997, CTA has worked closely with the government and schools to educate people about air pollution in Hong Kong. They have been active in Hong Kong (2) (never/for) the past 15 years.

The CTA has trained voluntary smoky vehicle spotters (3) (just/since) 1988 for the Environmental Protection Department. The EPD constantly need volunteers to look out for vehicles that are producing excessive smoke. The collected statistics have (4) (already/for) helped remove many harmful smoky vehicles from the streets. Before the campaign, Hong Kong has (5) (ever/never) had such a policy of monitoring air pollution from vehicles.

Have you (6) (ever/never) thought about how you can help improve air quality? Volunteer today.

Reflexive pronouns

- E You are reading comments from an online forum about pollution in Hong Kong. Complete the forum posts with reflexive pronouns.

captainplanet posted:

I live in Causeway Bay with my family. We find (1) ourselves living in one of the most polluted parts in the city. We can hardly breathe.

pete1222 posted:

The people in the restaurants are always talking loudly and our neighbours are always playing loud music at night. They only care about (2) themselves and seem to have forgotten that noise is a form of pollution too.

surfingjohnny posted:

If you like swimming in the ocean, remember to be careful. You might find (3) yourself/ourselves swimming in the middle of floating rubbish like cans and plastic bags.